

LOVE LANGUAGE AT WORK

- Say thank you more often
- Acknowledge ideas and implement them
- Give credit and merit
- Send shout out emails for specific employees
- Send thank you notes
- Grab coffee or supplies for a coworker
- Help with someone else's workload
- Take meeting notes and share them
- Apologize with intention
- Celebrate small victories

LOVE LANGUAGE AT WORK

Thank you for helping me out on this project.

I REALLY APPRECIATE YOU SHARING YOUR NOTES FROM THE MEETING.

I'm grateful for your innovative ideas.

Thank you for reminding me about the meeting. I didn't have it in my calendar.

What can I do to support you?

What's on your plate?

Thank you for filling the copy
machine with paper.

(773) 559 4500
www.peagramconsulting.com
kortneypeagram@peagramconsulting.com

